UNWRITTEN LAW SAVES SMITH FROM LONG TERM

TO BLOODY FIGHT OFFERED TO ASK FOR PARDON

Sam Lewis, in Quarrel Over 20 Cents, Is Held by One Negro and Stabbed by Another.

for the rest of his natural life.

Lewis was covered with blood when he emerged with flying feet from the joint. He was met by one of the special policemen, who summoned the ambulance, with Dr. Hoskins in charge.

Sam's relatives swarmed to the Second Police Station, where his juries were being treated by the present when the prisoner, pale and steady of nerve, did not show the least concern. Around him members of his family were either weeping or trying to hold back the tears. Then, when it was known that he had to bear slight punishment for his orime. Smith turned and thanked the jury, his lawyer subsequently asking that seatence be immediately passed. were being treated by the argeon, and enough of them raked out the Slayer of Murphy Gets One Year, Jury Being Largely Swayed by Sentiment.

Seven Members of Panel Voted for Acquittal from Start, Others Agreeing to Short Term.

In a quarrel over 20 cents in a skin game out in the "Ward." Sam Lewis, colored, was knocked in the head with a brick and stabbed in the forehead with some blunt instrument that will leave its memory on Sam's countenance for the rest of his natural life.

Mainly because of sentiment on the part of the jury which heard the evidence, Silas Smith, horseman, was given one year in the penitentiary in the Henrico Circuit Court yesterday for the murder of William Murphy at Acca Stock Farm, on the morning of March 15th last.
